Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(b) On February 4, 2013, Samuel W. Duggan II, Chief Financial Officer of Stereotaxis, Inc. (the "Company"), notified the Company of his decision to resign from the Company effective February 22, 2013.

(c) Mr. Martin C. Stammer will serve as the Company's interim Chief Financial Officer, and he will also be assuming the duties of principal financial officer and principal accounting officer of the Company, effective February 28, 2013. Mr. Stammer, 32, joined the Company in October 2009 as Senior Manager, Financial Reporting. He held the position of Corporate Controller from July 2011 through August 2012, and in August 2012 was named Vice President, Controller. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Stammer was employed in various roles and capacities at Deloitte & Touche LLP, including most recently as Audit Manager.

Mr. Stammer will receive salary, bonus and equity awards, and will participate in other benefit and compensation plans, at levels consistent with his seniority and scope of responsibility.

There is no arrangement between Mr. Stammer and any other persons pursuant to which he was selected as principal financial officer and principal accounting officer of the Company. Mr. Stammer does not have any relationship or related person transaction with the Company that would require disclosure pursuant to Item 401(d) of SEC regulation S-K.

The Company is not aware of any transactions or proposed transactions in which the Company was or is to be a participant since January 1, 2010, in which the amount involved exceeds $120,000, and in which Mr. Stammer had, or will have, a direct or indirect material interest.

A copy of the February 7, 2013 press release announcing Mr. Duggan's resignation and Mr. Stammer's assumption of new duties is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Stereotaxis CFO Steps Down to Pursue New Career Opportunity

Company Vice President and Controller Martin Stammer to Assume Role of Interim CFO

ST. LOUIS, MO, Thursday, February 7, 2013 – Stereotaxis, Inc. (NASDAQ: STXS) has announced that Sam Duggan, Chief Financial Officer, will resign from the Company, effective February 22, 2013. Serving as Stereotaxis CFO since October 2011, Mr. Duggan is leaving to accept a CFO position with a large, privately held company headquartered in St. Louis. Martin Stammer, Vice President and Controller, will assume the role of Interim CFO.

Michael Kaminski, Stereotaxis Chief Executive Officer, said, “Sam joined the company during a difficult period and has been instrumental in significantly reducing our cost structure and improving our financial performance. We will miss his thoughtful counsel and collaborative leadership but wish him great success in this new opportunity at a much larger company.”

Upon Mr. Duggan’s departure, Mr. Stammer will be promoted to Principal Accounting Officer and Interim CFO. Since joining the Company in October 2009, he has assumed increasing levels of responsibility. Promoted to Corporate Controller in August 2011, he was then named Vice President and Controller in August 2012.

“Marty has proven to be a valuable member and leader within our financial organization over the past few years, playing a key role in developing and executing our strategic financial initiatives, as well as securing essential funding and banking relationships,” said Mr. Kaminski. “We are very confident in his ability to seamlessly assume the role of interim CFO and continue to advance our goals of delivering expected results and strengthening our financial position.”
